RICHARD LONGFIELD, Baron LONGUEVILLE, of Longueville, in the county of Cork; created a Peer in Oct. 1795; was born Oct. 9, 1737, and married Nov. 8, 1756, Mifs White, aunt to Lord Bantry.

This family derive their defcent from the Longchamps in Normandy, Normandy, who attended the Conqueror to England, and foon after fettled in Ireland, where they acquired confiderable poffessions. William, elder brother of the grandfather of the prefent Peer, and whose descendants are extinet, lost very large property by adhering to the unfortunate James II. now valued at 30,000 l. per ann. but on King William's accession had 3000 acres granted him by the Act of Settlement; his younger brother, John Longfield, the grandfather of the prefent Lord, was more fortunate, by adhering to the party of King William, under whose administration he was employed as collector at Mallow, and fettled in the county of Cork. He married Mifs Hownby, and died April 22, 1730, leaving iffue four fons and fix daughters, viz. 1. Robert, the eldest, married March 11, 1731, Miss Gearing, and died March 10, 1765, leaving two fons; John, born July 3, 1733, deceased, who married Miss Tilson, by whom he had Robert, who died 1775; 2. Richard, the present Peer.- John, second son, born June 24, 1697, married September 21, 1738, Miss Westron, and died April 1, 1765, leaving iffue two fons, 1. John, (the present male heir) and M. P. for Mallow, born July 5, 1741, married June 26, 1764, to Miss Foster; 2. Mountfort, M. P. for Enniscorthy, born Aug 22, 1746, married to Miss Bateman.-William, third fon, born in 1710, married to Miss Goodman, and died in 1771, leaving issue, John, born July 6, 1738, married to Miss Courfay.—Hownby, fourth fon, who married, and died without male iffue.

RALPH PAYNE, Baron LAVINGTON, of Lavington, and Knight of the Bath, was created to the above Barony; Oct. 1, 1795. His Lordship married Francoise Lambertine, Baroness de Kolbel, of a noble Saxon family, daughter of Frederic Maximilian, Baron de Kolbel, a General in the Imperial service.

This branch of the family of Payne was early fettled in Devonshire; and during the civil troubles of the last century, was distinguished for its steady attachment to the royal cause. But when this grew desperate, Ralph, great-grandsather to the prefent Lord, (who had early joined the Royal flandard, and was present at the battle of Worcester) found it necessary, after the loss of that day, to quit this country; and with others emigrated to the West Indies, where he settled on a considerable estate in the island of St. Christopher's, which, at his death, he left equally divided between his three fons, Abraham, Charles, and Nathaniel. Charles, the fecond fon, was created a Baronet. whose title has descended to the present Baronet, Sir Gillies Payne, of Tempsford Hall, in Bedfordshire; and Nathaniel died, leaving an only daughter, who married William Woodley, Esq. late Governor of the Leeward Islands. Abraham, the eldest fon, married Anne Willett, eldest daughter of Ralph Willett, Elg. of St. Christopher's, (and fifter to Henry Willett, father of the late Ralph Willett, of Merley, in Dorsetshire) by whom he had feveral fons and daughters. Ralph, the eldeft fon, married, first, Alice Carlisle, daughter and heiress of Francis Carlifle, Efq. of Antigua, by whom he had iffue, Ralph, the present Peer.-Elizabeth, and John, who are both dead. He married, 2dly, Margaret Galwey, of St. Christopher's, by whom he had Anne, and George, both dead .- Stephen, (who has taken the name of Galwey) at prefent of Toits, in Norfolk.- John, a Captain in the royal navy, who was appointed Commodore and Commander in Chief of the squadron which was fent to conduct her Royal Highness the Princess of Wales to England - William, Lieut. Col. of the first, or Royal Regiment of Dragoons.-Martha, and Lucretia. Ralph, the prefent Peer, ferved in the feveral parliaments which were elected in 1768, 1774, and 1780, for the boroughs of Shaftelbury, Camelford, and Plympton. In Feb. 1771, he was created a Knight of the Bath; and, in the month of May following, was appointed by his Majesty to be Captain General, and Governor in Chief, in and over all his Majesty's Leeward Caribbe Islands in the West Indies. On his return from that station, he was appointed Clerk of the Green Cloth; in which department he continued till the diffolution of that part of the royal household. On Oct. 1, 1795, he was created a Peer of the kingdom of Ireland; and, on the 21st of the same month, was elected at Woodstock, to represent that borough in the British parliament.

OF A NEW WORK, ENTITLED

GENERAL BIOGRAPHY.

LIVES OF THE MOST EMINENT PERSONS OF ALL AGES, Countries, Conditions, and Professions, ARRANGED ACCORDING TO ALPHABETICAL ORDER;

Chiefly composed by f. AIKIN, M. D. and the late Rev. WILLIAM ENFIELD, LL. D.

It is the particular purpose of this work to afford a more characteristic and impartial estimate, moral and intellectual, of the subjects of biographical record, than has hitherto been done in fimilar publications; and likewife to proportion more juftly the length and minuteness of the parrative to the relative consequence of the individual commemorated. By attention to these points it is hoped that fuch a view has been given of all the most conspicuous characters in history and literature, as may fuffice for the instruction and entertainment of general readers, and preclude the necessity of consulting a variety of Authors. For the use of those who wish to make more particular inquiries, and likewise for the purpole of authenticating the matter of narration, references are subjoined to every fingle article of the sources whence the information has been derived.

The future volumes will be conducted as nearly as possible in the same spirit with that now presented to the public. The new literary affiftance which the death of Dr. ENFIELD has rendered necessary, has already been in part secured, and will in due time be made known to the encouragers of the undertaking.
